Recommendation Letters

You must provide two confidential recommendations as part of this Application Form. The first a Mentor Recommendation, the second an Academic Recommendation. It is your responsibility to contact your referees and ask them to send their reports to: The Manager, UNSW Scholarships, UNSW Sydney NSW 2052 or by email to scholarships@unsw.edu.au. Referees should not be asked to send their reports to you. References MUST be clearly marked with your full name AND the name of the scholarship for which you are applying.

Mentor Recommendation Instructions

For Students: The first recommendation should be completed by an advisor or mentor (e.g. a Student advisor, employer, community organisation leader) who knows you well and can speak to your impact as a leader within the student body and/or community as well as your character, motivation, leadership qualities and integrity. The Mentor Recommender should not be a member of your family.

For Mentor Recommenders: The Robertson Scholars Leadership Program is a leadership development program that seeks students who have shown evidence of impact as a leader within the student body and/or community. Mentors should also comment on the applicant's character, motivation, and integrity, whether the applicant is goal orientated or their ability to effectively communicate.

On the form provided, or on a separate Microsoft Word (*.doc or .docx) or Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) document, help us better understand this student's leadership ability, noting any particular strengths, the impact that they have and the type of person that they are.

Academic Recommendation Instructions

For Students: The Academic Recommendation should be completed by someone within your school community who can elaborate on your mind (curiosity, analysis and knowledge). The Academic Recommender should not be a member of your family.

For Academic Recommenders: Beyond academic excellence, we want students with an intellectual sense of adventure; students who are curious and imaginative and seek to create their own opportunities to expand the life of the mind (curiosity). We want students who have the ability to examine information critically to create new knowledge (analysis). Do they possess the ability to bring what they learn in the classroom to the world, and what they learn in the world to the classroom (knowledge).

On the form provided, or on a separate Microsoft Word (*.doc or .docx) or Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) document, help us better understand this student's background or interests that would help us accurately evaluate his/her academic ability. Noting any exceptional difficulties or challenges that he/she has overcome or any out-of-school activities such as research or special enrichment programs that demonstrate intellectual curiosity.
