UNSW Scholarships

Every year UNSW provides hundreds of scholarships to help students of all circumstances reach their educational goals. Scholarships are offered in a range of broad categories including rural, Indigenous, academic merit, sports, equity, accommodation, travel and exchange, as well as for specific degrees and faculties. To be considered for a scholarship, all you have to do is submit an application online by the deadline.

Merit

Merit scholarships recognise students who demonstrate exceptional academic achievements or other outstanding qualities, with the potential to succeed in their chosen field.

Equity

Equity scholarships assist students who may experience financial or other educational disadvantage with the costs of tertiary study and help them reach their academic potential.

Rural

Rural scholarships provide support to eligible students who may have to move from rural, regional or remote areas in order to study at UNSW.

Sports

Sports scholarships aim to support outstanding athletes to obtain a world class education whilst continuing to compete as an elite athlete in their chosen sport.

Indigenous

Indigenous scholarships are offered to our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students to encourage academic excellence and provide support for the costs of tertiary education.

Accommodation

Accommodation scholarships assist with the costs of living in the Residential Communities on campus, which includes Colleges and apartments for independent living.

Honours

Honours scholarships encourage and support outstanding undergraduates to undertake an Honours year or research program related to their degree.

Travel/Exchange

Scholarships are offered to UNSW students to undertake a period of study overseas on exchange with our global network of over 200 partner institutions in 39 countries.

Faculty/Program

Various awards and scholarships are on offer to encourage students to apply for and undertake study in particular Faculties or degree programs.

"Having a scholarship gave me the funds to be able to move into a college on campus. It also means I can afford to go to university events such as camps and faculty balls which are always a great way to get to know other people in your degree."

Jacqueline Orme

DSTO Undergraduate Scholarship for Females in Science and Engineering
Honourable Jack Beale Scholarship
UNSW All Rounder Scholarship

"Holding a scholarship also provides many non-monetary benefits such as fostering mentorship and support, and the chance to meet some really interesting people within the university community."

Benjamin Jones

Balnaves Foundation Indigenous Medical Scholarship

"The scholarship has allowed me to focus on my studies, without the pressure of having to work long hours in a part-time job. This has helped me a great deal in finding a balanced lifestyle, whilst maintaining a high academic standard."

Erik Ostman

Malcolm Chaikin Foundation Scholarship

"Holding my scholarships has given me that confidence to believe I belong here, and to get connected with my peers early on. Although it can be daunting starting university, holding a scholarship feels like hitting the ground running, and adds to the experience."

Victoria Xu
