

International Student Award – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

Q. How do I apply for the International Student Award?

A. Refer to <https://www.scholarships.unsw.edu.au/international-student-award-term-1-2022> for instructions on applying for the International Student Award.

Q. Can I defer the International Student Award offer to a later intake?

A. No, the International Student Award is currently only available in Term 1 2022 and cannot be deferred.

Q. Once I have received my International Student Award letter, how do I accept it?

A. Simply accept your offer of admission via Accept Online. If you have already accepted your offer of admission we will assume you wish to accept the International Student Award unless you contact us in writing to decline the award via enquiry.unsw.edu.au.

Q. Will the International Student Award reduce the deposit I need to pay to accept my offer of admission?

A. No. The deposit required to accept your offer of admission remains unchanged and is outlined in your admission offer and in Accept Online.

Q. I am a current UNSW student and have applied for admission to a new program without completing my current program. Can I hold the Award?

A. No, the International Student Award is available to new students only. Students who have completed an undergraduate program at UNSW and are commencing a postgraduate program will be considered a new student for the purposes of the Award.

Q. I have been awarded another scholarship at UNSW. Can I hold the Award?

A. Yes, provided that your scholarship does not cover full tuition fees you can hold the International Student Award with another scholarship. The 15% university contribution will apply to any remaining tuition fees.

Q. Can I enrol part time and still hold the Award?

A. No, in order to remain eligible for the Award you must maintain full time enrolment.

Q. If I become a Domestic student (Australian Citizen, Australian Permanent Resident or New Zealand Citizen) can I still hold the Award?

A. No, the Award is for international students only.

Q. If I hold the Award, can I transfer to another program?

A. Only if the new program is an eligible program. The Award is not applicable to students studying any program offered by AGSM, UNSW Online, UNSW Canberra, UNSW Foundation Programs, Transition Program Online, any program taught in the Hexamester calendar or Study Abroad students.

Q: I am commencing my Diploma at UNSW Global and have been offered the International Student Award. Will I keep the Award when I transfer to my Bachelor degree at UNSW?

A: Yes. As you will be an Award holder transferring to an eligible program you will be entitled to keep the International Student Award when you enrol in your Bachelor degree.

Q. What are the Terms & Conditions for the Award?

A. Click here for the UNSW International Award Terms & Conditions

